Zad. 1.

Kate: Can I go to a concert, daddy?

Dad: But you were at the concert last Saturday, Kate. At the City Stadium, I think.

Kate: Yes, but this weekend is a different story. My favourite rock band The Oaks are coming to play in our town.

Dad: Come on, Kate. All bands are your favourites, I guess. Where is the concert? In the same place?

Kate: No, it's in the Music Hall, you know dad, this new modern building in the centre near the park.

Dad: I know, I know... Who do you want to go with?

Kate: There would be four of us: me, Linda, Lucy and Tom. You know them all well. They're my best friends.

Dad: Right. What time are you going to be back?

Kate: Well, the band will finish around 11 p.m., I guess, so...

Dad: What? 11 p.m.? You're too young. How are you going to get back? The buses don't go so late and it's too cold for bicycles.

Kate: Calm down, daddy. I'm not too young, I'm 16. Besides, don't worry! Lucy's mum is going to pick us up in her van. It's really comfortable.

Dad: OK, darling. But you must promise me to improve your history marks next week. If not, forget about your social life for a long time.

Kate: Oh dad! That's not fair... but OK, I agree.

Zad. 2.

Speaker 1

Well, I like the amazing soundtrack best. The photography is also fine and the actors really great, but I still hear those beautiful Scottish songs. I always know when the characters with beautiful costumes on are sad or happy. The sounds tell me so. I'd like to have a CD with this soundtrack.

Speaker 2

I really love this exciting movie because I love historical films. The actors' clothes are beautiful, the music is great, but most of all I enjoy the wonderful pictures of old Scottish castles. The person who took them is a great professional. I'd like to be able to take such amazing pictures of my neighbourhood with my video camera.

Speaker 3

I'm not sure if I like the movie, but the actors' costumes are the prettiest and the most attractive. I'll never forget that lovely dress that the actress playing the main role has put on at the ball in McGregor's castle. Oh! And the music is really nice.

Transkrypcja:

Julia: Hi, Robert! I've just begun attending an Italian course.

Robert: Wow! So, we can talk Italian now.

Julia: Robert, don't be silly! I've just had 2 lessons. I only know a few Italian words.

Robert: I see. How often do you go there, Julia?

Julia: Well, it's at 6 pm every Tuesday and Thursday. So I have to wait 3 hours after my class.

Robert: Well, tomorrow is Thursday. You know what? Let's meet before your course. First, we can go somewhere to eat and then to the cinema.

Julia: Sounds great. I finish school at three, so let's meet at three-fifteen.

Robert: Could we meet ten minutes later? You see, I finish my lessons at three-fifteen.

Julia: No problem, Robert. See you.

Zad. 4.

4.1. Why don't we go to the cinema tonight?

4.2. What's the weather like today?

4.3. You are late again, Jimmy!

4.4. Thanks, you helped me a lot.
